

Computer & Technology Club Constitution

SNHU CTC E-Board

Last Updated: October 29th, 2017

Article I Name

The name this organization shall be "Computer & Technology Club" or organization.

Article II Purpose of the Organization

The purpose of this organization shall be to provide a space for students interested in Computers & Technology to come together and learn more about the field. The organization will also provide a space where students can work together on Technology projects with guidance from other members.

Article III Officers

Election of officers will require a majority vote from the general membership. If a candidate fails to receive a majority of votes, a runoff election will be held within the top two candidates that received the most votes. Members interested in becoming an officer must must meet the following academic requirements: 2.5 Cumulative G.P.A. for undergraduate student and 3.0 cumulative for graduate student. The term of office will be until the next election period. The executive board of the organization is comprised of all recognized officers. The Executive Board shall meet in addition to regular organization meetings. The Executive Board shall appoint committees if they are needed to carry out organization goals.

Section 3.A President

1. Preside over all meetings
2. Represent organization on campus
3. Ensure the organization is operating in conformity with the standards set forth by Southern New Hampshire University, the Office of Student Involvement, and the Student Government Association.
4. Set the schedule for club meetings
5. Create Executive Board Meeting Agendas

Section 3.B Vice-President

1. Preside over meetings in the absence of the President
2. Schedule meetings / events with appropriate University Offices
3. Review club technology needs and make recommendations to the executive board

4. Carries out all presidential duties in the absence of the president
5. Check and respond to the email in the ITSA account

Section 3.C Treasurer

1. Maintain accurate record of organization transactions
2. Develop organization budget and present to the executive board for a 3/4 vote
3. Arrange fund raising opportunities for the organization
4. Solicit additional funding if needed from the Student Government Association

Section 3.D Secretary

1. Maintain a membership directory and return completed roster forms to the Office of Student Involvement
2. Maintain an accurate record of all organization member meetings.
3. Maintain minutes of the executive board meetings.
4. Work with the President to create in-depth meeting plans for the membership meetings.
5. Manage all marketing platforms

Article IV Impeachment of Officers

An officer can be impeached from the Executive Board by written nomination of any other officer or the advisor. The executive board and advisor will meet within two weeks, during this meeting the officer accusing the nominated executive board will explain their case. The nominated officer will have a chance to explain their actions to the rest of the executive board. The executive board will then have a chance to deliberate and vote without the nominated executive board member present. The vote will be passed by a 2/3 vote of the executive board, not including the advisor. In case of a tie, the advisor has the right to the final decision. The advisor will then inform the nominated executive board member of the decision.

Article V Elections

Elections are held once a year, one month prior to the conclusion of the academic year. Any member that has been active with the organization for one or more semesters can run for office. Through a majority vote, a person can be elected into office. If a mid-year vacancy occurs, a vote of 2/3 of the executive board can approve a new executive board member.

Article VI Membership

Membership in this organization is open to all SNHU, graduate and undergraduate students who have paid their student activity fee. Membership will not be restricted on the basis of age, disability, ethnicity, gender, national origin, race, religion, sexuality, gender identity or expression, or political affiliation. Students in good standing with the University (2.5 cumulative G.P.A. for undergraduate and 3.0 for Graduate) are eligible for membership after attending or participating in an organization event/meeting.

As a member, one is required to attend organization meetings regularly and actively support organization projects. Membership will be revoked by 1/2 vote of Executive Board if actions are deemed inappropriate by the membership.

Article VII Finances

The treasurer shall maintain all financial records. All income accounts shall be established through the Office of Student Involvement. The treasurer shall also complete any budget disbursement requests as well as any funding request forms.

Article VIII Voting Authority

The executive board shall have all voting authority for club decisions other than the election of candidates during a general election. The advisor will have no voting authority. In the event of a deadlock, a coin will be flipped; heads will be in favor of the proposed motion, tails will be against the proposed motion. The coin flip will be the best of two out of three.

Article IX Meetings

The organization shall hold regular meetings during the academic term except when holidays, examination periods or other events make meeting impractical. Organization meeting time will be determined by the executive board along with room availability and the availability of the advisor. Attendance at organization meetings is expected. If a member must miss a meeting correspondence to the secretary is appreciated. A quorum shall consist of a simple majority of the membership plus one officer. Robert's Rules of Order shall govern all meetings.

Article X Conduct

All recognized student organizations and club members are expected to abide by the University Student Code of Conduct found within the SNHU Student Handbook. Club Recognition is a right of the University and for this reason, the process of recognizing, supporting and fostering student organizations is a shared responsibility. The University reserves it's right to deny or withdraw recognition from any group deemed not to be in concert with the goals and objectives of the University (see SNHU Student Handbook for the full policy).

Article XI Amendments

Amendments to this constitution must be submitted in writing at a regular meeting of the organization. Said amendments will be voted on at a subsequent meeting. In order to adopt the amendment, a vote of 3/4 of the executive board membership is required.

Article XII Advisor

The advisor shall be a full time faculty or staff member at Southern New Hampshire University. The advisor will assume those responsibilities as outlined in this constitution. The advisor will be selected by a 2/3 vote of the Executive Board. Advisors not fulfilling responsibilities or not abiding by the organization's purpose may be removed from the position by a 1/2 vote of the Executive Board.

Article XIII Ratification

The constitution shall become effective upon approval by a 3/4 vote of the membership. A copy of this constitution must be on-file with the Office of Student Involvement. The minutes will also be submitted of the meeting when the vote was held alongside the updated constitution.

Approved: _____

Joshua Martin

CTC President

Last Updated: October 29th, 2017